The French – Croatian Story

13.04. – 14.10.2017

The French – Croatian story is a gastro story that compares the French and the Croatian food. Ingredients from both countries will be prepared using the same methods in the exclusive ambiance of the exclusive kitchen under the leadership of the chef of Alfred Keller restaurant, Melkior Bašić. For example, you will get to taste and compare French and Croatian oysters, Adriatic and French shrimp along with drops of superb French and Croatian wines from the hotel's rich vinery. Chef Melkior keeps up with modern gastro trends and his method of food preparation always strives to preserve the natural aroma, meat juices and freshness of tasty spices.

You will be guided through the entire story by a sommelier who will introduce you to the characteristics of the offered wines and their connection with the selected delicacies in terms of flavour.

Gault Millau, a renowned French guide, has included the Alfred Keller á la carte restaurant on the list of the best restaurants in 2017.
